

INTERNATIONAL

Mona is a consultant, speaker, author, executive coach, & social entrepreneur.

Why Work With Mona:

Mona holds a Master's Degree in Political Analysis on International Relations.

- Her deep interest in understanding world affairs, world economy, & world culture propelled her educational journey.

Mona interned at the World Trade Center & the United Nations.

- There she gained hands-on experience in international trade, conflict resolution, & humanitarian crisis.

Mona is a Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) from Toastmasters International.

- She has also led & coached several multicultural corporate clubs to achieve record growth.

Mona is a contributor to several publications including the Goodman Project & Thrive Global.

Mona speaks several languages & has extensive knowledge of diverse world cultures.

Mona has founded & led multiple businesses & nonprofit organizations.

Reviews:

“I have attended multiple presentations by Mona on Cultural Diversity. I found her to be exceptionally experienced & talented with unique abilities from which I have gained new skills & development.” - Nick Randazzo, SIEMENS

“I have consulted Mona on various occasions when I am faced with cultural barriers with international clients. She helped me with communication & understanding their way of doing business. Ever since I began consulting with Mona, I received more business.” - Arlene Cowen, Eaton Realty

“Mona has an uplifting & empowering presence that illuminates the room. Her presentations are impeccable, both in style and in content.”
-Ahmed Elgendi, Lowndes Law

Find more glowing testimonials at www.monlou.net